2. Services

(see clause 2.1.1.a)

2.1. Introduction

The Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) is responsible for the development of rigorous, world-class Australian curriculum from Foundation to Year 12.

To complement the development of an Australian curriculum, ACARA is also responsible for developing and administering a national assessment program aligned to the national curriculum that measures students' progress, and the provision of information, resources, support and guidance to the teaching profession.

ACARA reports to, and is directed by, the Education Council (previously known as the Standing Council on School Education and Early Childhood).

ACARA has overall responsibility for implementing the National Assessment Program (NAP).

2.2. Background

National Assessment Program – Literacy and Numeracy

The National Assessment Program — Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN) is the main assessment program conducted by ACARA. Every year all Australian students in Years 3, 5, 7 and 9 are assessed in Reading, Writing, Language Conventions and Numeracy. The tests are equated longitudinally each year in order to ensure comparability of results from year to year, and to enable tracking of students' results.

Federal, state and territory education ministers agreed that NAPLAN will move online by 2020. State/territory education authorities will make decisions about the logistics and timing to move NAPLAN online for their state/territory, and during transition years some schools will sit NAPLAN tests online and some schools will sit NAPLAN tests on paper.

NAPLAN Online will be delivered by ACARA in partnership with Educational Services Australia (ESA) with each responsible for interrelated aspects. ACARA is responsible for delivering the assessment and reporting services, including research into the online delivery of assessment programs.

ESA is responsible for the delivery of the technical services for the Online National Assessment Platform ('the platform').

NAPLAN Item Trial August 2019

During NAPLAN's item-development and trialling phase, single items and suites of items (testlets) are developed by item writers. The main purpose of the NAPLAN Item Trial (Item Trial) is to trial the online items procured in numeracy, reading, writing, spelling and grammar and punctuation domains to support the development of the NAPLAN 2020 program. Data from the trial will be used in psychometric analysis of the items to determine their suitability or otherwise for inclusion in the final 2020 NAPLAN tests and/or future NAPLAN tests.

Sampling information

In the Item Trial, ACARA will trial numeracy, reading, writing, spelling and grammar and punctuation items in approximately 440 schools across Australia. Schools will be sampled from metropolitan, regional, provincial and remote areas from all sectors in all states and territories. It is expected that ALL schools in the sample provided by ACARA are included in the testing.

Each student will complete two tests each. Tests can be scheduled over one or two days, depending on the IT available in schools.

It is expected that at least one class at each NAPLAN year level in each school will participate (i.e. in a primary school one class from Year 3 and one class from Year 5 will sit two tests each, and in a secondary school one class from Year 7 and one class from Year 9 will sit two tests each. However, in South Australia, the primary school will contribute classes from Years 3, 5 and 7 and secondary schools will contribute only from Year 9). The total sample size will be approximately 5500 students per year level. In some instances, the sample may include two classes per year level.

The Contractor is required to coordinate administration of the trial tests according to ACARA's sampling design. This design will include which tests are to be administered at each school, including the year level and number of students to be tested.

ACARA will provide the postcodes and names of sample schools following project initiation.

The provisional distribution of the sample by state and territory is as follows:

Number of schools
State	Reading / Language Conventions / Numeracy/ Writing (2-4 classes per school)
	Primary	Secondary
ACT	5	5
NSW	73	72
NT	5	5
QLD	39	44
SA	15	15
TAS	5	5
VIC	56	53

WA	22	21
Total number of schools	220	220

*based on an average of 25 students per class. For the purposes of these calculations, a school is defined as either primary or secondary. For K-12 schools included in the sample, class numbers will be doubled.

Example breakdown of student numbers

- 220 schools with Year 3 students: 25 x 220 = 5500
- Four Year 3 test combinations: Reading + Numeracy; Reading + Language Conventions; Numeracy + Language Conventions; Writing + Writing.

Note to Tenderers: The samples will be confirmed during project initiation and the final sample provided to the Contractor. Tenderers should use the information provided as a basis for preparing their tenders. ACARA reserves the right to alter the proposed sample.

2.3 Purpose

The purpose of this Contract is to engage a qualified and experienced Contractor to provide test administration and invigilation of the Item Trial in a sample of schools across Australia; and to conduct the marking operation for the marking of writing scripts.

Role of the Contractor

The Contractor is expected to work in close collaboration with ACARA's Project Manager at all stages of the project to ensure that the procedures and methodologies are consistent with the technical standards for the Education Council's national assessments and ACARA's assessment protocols, and that the project deliverables and timelines are met. The Contractor's Project Director will report to ACARA's Project Manager on the basis agreed between ACARA and the Contractor in the project plan and at any other times when clarification is required.

The Contractor will be responsible for implementing the project objectives.

The Contractor will be required to provide the following:

2.4 Scope of project

Test Administration Authorities (TAAs)

Test Administration Authorities (TAAs) in each state and territory will approve the sampled schools and provide assistance with ensuring that all schools participate in the Item Trial. ACARA will liaise directly with TAAs on behalf of the Contractor.

Role of Education Services Australia (ESA)

Education Services Australia (ESA) will provide the Online National Assessment Platform (the platform) that the Item Trial will be delivered on. ESA will also provide the marking and scoring system (M&SS) component of the platform, on which the human marking of the Item Trial writing scripts may take place.

Key points of contact with ESA in relation to the platform will include:

- creating test administrator 'invigilation' user accounts
- creating school technical support officer accounts
- creating school and student profiles
- enrolling students in the Item Trial tests and creating student user accounts
- assigning Item Trial tests as per the sample plan to schools and students
- provision of 'second level' technical support during administration of the tests and marking of writing scripts (if the M&SS is used)
- provision of test completion reports
- creating writing marker IDs and writing marker user accounts in the M&SS in advance of marking writing scripts (if the M&SS is used)
- setting user roles within the M&SS (if the M&SS is used)
- assigning scripts to markers as required (implementation of marking design) in the M&SS (if the M&SS is used)
- provision of access to marker and marking progress reports from the M&SS (if the M&SS is used).

ACARA will advise arrangements for liaising with ESA during project initiation.

Note to Tenderers: ACARA is considering trialling the Year 3 Writing prompts on paper and online, so that Year 3 students sit one test on paper and one test online in the platform. ACARA requests that the Contractor provide a quote to print, package and distribute sufficient Year 3 writing test booklets and prompts to ensure that a minimum number of 1000 Year 3 students each complete one writing test on paper.

ACARA is also seeking a quote from the Contractor to provide and use their own secure, online marking system on which to conduct the marking operation, in the event that the Marking and Scoring system developed by ESA is not able to be used, and/or in the event that the Year 3 writing scripts must be conducted in a paper-based form instead of online on the platform. The Contractor's marking system must be able to accept electronically-produced (typed) writing scripts and ideally be able to also accept hand-written scripts; be configured for implementing Deliverables 10-17 on all criteria of the NAPLAN writing marking guide; and for quality control via targeted backmarking, including frequently available reports (score review procedures). The Contractor's marking system must be able to accept (quality) control scripts, ensuring that they render in a way that they are indistinguishable from live scripts. The Contractor would also need to provide technical support (a helpdesk) for, and training in, their online marking system for the duration of the marking operation.

Should ACARA decide to proceed with using the Contractor's marking system for marking writing scripts, the Contractor would need to provide quality assured data capture and delivery of the writing data to ACARA in the agreed fixed width text file format as noted in Deliverable 17. High resolution scanned images of the paper writing scripts in Pdf and Jpeg formats must also be provided.

The final project scope will be confirmed with the successful tenderer during contract negotiations.

2.4.1 Deliverable 1 – Project management plan

The Contractor will be required to provide a project plan after formal acceptance of a purchase order from ACARA. The project plan will need to be approved by ACARA and include the following:

- An overall project management plan which includes:
 - a timeline for deliverables and critical deadlines
 - a communication plan for communicating with schools, which sets out key consultation and approval/decision points
 - a training plan for training invigilators how to administer the tests online
 - the names of all persons involved in the project and their respective roles.
- A quality assurance plan detailing how the quality assurance and quality control processes outlined in the original tender will be implemented and monitored by the Contractor throughout the project.
- The quality assurance plan must specify in detail all and any perceived risks that may impact on the quality of the contract deliverables and must provide detailed advice on the strategies for risk management for each identified risk. It is not sufficient to provide information only about generic quality assurance systems and quality manuals.
- A risk management plan outlining how risks identified in the original tender, as well as any further risks that are been identified, will be managed in relation to the project, detailing strategies to ensure project needs are met within the required timeframe and to the highest standard. This plan must include how all aspects of security are addressed.
- ACARA requires the opportunity to audit risk management during the project, including where appropriate, attendance at the Contractor's place of work and or receiving briefings on the management of risk.
- A detailed security plan for managing all stages of the project, including incident management procedures and response plans, detailing how system access, security and unscheduled downtime will be managed. The security plan should be informed by the requirements listed in section 2.6 Security Requirements.

2.4.2 Deliverable 2 – Project management reporting

After execution of a purchase order and initiation of the project the Contractor will be required to:

- provide regular status reports to ACARA

- be available for regular dialogue with ACARA personnel across the entire project lifecycle
- provide risk alerts to ACARA immediately upon detection of issues considered high risk to the project
- respond to feedback from ACARA following reviews of Item Trial material including those developed for administration, training and marking purposes
- modify Item Trial material in response to feedback from ACARA
- attend nominated meetings
- provide agreed milestone reports to ACARA by the specified dates
- meet the project deadlines.

Meetings

The Contractor will be required to communicate with ACARA's Project Manager and project team at key juncture points of the NAPLAN Online Item Trial August 2019 project. Regular meetings will be organised by ACARA and held at a time and location (videoconference as default mode) agreed with the Contractor (for example, a regular weekly meeting, with daily meetings during the test window, and ad-hoc meetings as required).

The Contractor may be asked to attend a project close-out meeting with key members of ACARA's project team at an agreed time after the delivery of all required files to ACARA to discuss aspects of the project.

Project status reports

Throughout the project, the Contractor will regularly consult with the ACARA NAPLAN team in relation to the day-to-day management of the project – at a minimum of once a week. Written project status (progress) reports are to be submitted at nominated times to ACARA outlining progress on the key deliverables and issues that have arisen. Exception reports are required in the event of unforeseen circumstances.

Project completion/evaluation report

The Contractor must also provide a project completion/evaluation report outlining, as a minimum, the following:

- actual or agreed timelines negotiated within the scope of this contract
- an outline of successful components of the project delivery
- an outline of any obstacles, incidents or issues encountered that affected the delivery or reputation of the project in 2019, and any potential obstacles, incidents or issues that may affect the project in subsequent years
- an outline of any areas requiring improvement where a variation may improve any future work.

2.4.3 Deliverable 3 – Coordination with schools

Participation by schools in the Item Trial is a requirement of the Schools Assistance Act to which all schools are accountable and their compliance to which is a condition of their registration and government funding. Participation is not optional, and schools cannot choose to withdraw from the Item Trial without exceptional circumstances. Participation in a previous study is not considered to be an exceptional circumstance.

The Contractor is responsible for contacting all schools, arranging and confirming their participation in the Item Trial. The contractor is also responsible for ensuring that schools and invigilators are given all necessary information in a timely manner.

States and territories will contact the schools in their jurisdiction prior to the Contractor making contact with the schools to advise the test window. The Contractor will, in conjunction with ACARA and the states and territories, contact and liaise with the selected schools, through letters, emails or other appropriate methods, in order to schedule testing days. The Contractor is required to contact ACARA in the first instance if schools refuse to allow testing or raise other objections that would impact on the number of students tested or the testing dates. The Contractor will coordinate with ACARA any changes necessary to the sampling owing to incidents such as school refusals, high absentee rates, illnesses etc.

The Contractor is required to provide a testing schedule which reflects the dates and times agreed with schools for testing in each domain. A final test schedule is required once all test sessions have been confirmed with schools. Any changes to the final schedule should be noted as part of the weekly/daily reports showing how the sample test numbers are being met.

2.4.4 Deliverable 4 – Prepare for the delivery of computer-based assessments in schools

Each student will complete two tests. The contractor will work with schools to sort out logistics of how this will occur.

All tests that will be used in the Item Trial will be specified by ACARA's test managers. Tests will be available in the Assessment Delivery System component of the platform.

The Contractor will coordinate communication to schools (as approved by ACARA) and inform schools of the testing that will be conducted at their school.

The Contractor will be required to confirm that sampled schools have IT infrastructure that meets the specifications provided by ESA. The Contractor will need to liaise with all sampled schools to ensure that all schools download the most recent locked-down browser (LDB) on their devices, and to administer the Device Check (previously known as the technical readiness test) through the LDB. Information and support materials regarding the LDB and the Device Check will be coordinated by the Contractor in collaboration with ACARA and ESA. The LDB (which includes the Device Check) is available from the Assessform website hosted by ESA.

The Contractor may be required to liaise with ESA throughout this process. Key points of contact will include:

- creation of student identities (ID numbers), as student data will be de-identified
- creation of school, school technical support officer, student and invigilation user accounts by ESA
- enrolment of students in assessment events as per sample by ESA
- providing first level support during the period of the Item Trial

- provision of technical support by ESA during administration of the tests.

ACARA will provide user guides and training on the platform for the Contractor. The Contractor will then be responsible for training invigilators.

2.4.5 Deliverable 5 – Preparation of test administrator’s handbook

ACARA will provide existing NAPLAN Online test administration handbooks for reference. The Contractor will be responsible for the production of the test administration handbook for the Item Trial tests. The handbook will be developed by the Contractor to ensure all invigilators are fully aware of their responsibilities. Test administration handbooks will be required to be provided to invigilators. Printed materials are not required.

2.4.6 Deliverable 6 – Appoint and train invigilators

The Contractor will be responsible for employing and training invigilators who are required to administer the Item Trial tests at each school. The invigilators will be required to administer the tests under ‘test conditions’ (the same conditions required for NAPLAN Online) including actively monitoring students during the test (e.g. walking around the classroom to ensure that students are not copying from other students’ work).

Requirements for invigilators

- The invigilators employed by the Contractor must be familiar with the purpose and content of NAPLAN, and specifically with the prescribed NAPLAN and online testing context and procedures, including domain specific requirements.
- Invigilators must also be familiar with schools and school routines and suitably experienced in managing students in a classroom. Where the contractor intends to employ invigilators who are not current or previous teachers, contractors should provide information about what relevant qualifications invigilators hold.
- In addition, it is expected that invigilators should be sufficiently proficient in using computer devices.

The Contractor will need to organise training for their invigilators so that they are fully aware of their responsibilities with regard to test administration, the security of test materials, and administering tests on the platform; and provide evidence that all invigilators have successfully completed such training.

The Contractor will be responsible for all costs associated with the hiring and training of invigilators, and for all transport and other costs for in-school invigilation. The Contractor will be required to audit any materials given to and returned from invigilators in order to ensure that all materials are accounted for and not left at schools or lost in transit.

The Contractor will also be responsible for ensuring that all invigilators meet the requisite security requirements and checks for the jurisdictions in which they will administer the tests e.g. invigilators must have approval to enter and work in schools (note that invigilators from South Australia must have attended RAN-EC training). Note that some schools may require invigilators to show their approval/clearance to enter/work in schools, along with photo identification, before allowing invigilators to enter school grounds.

2.4.7 Deliverable 7 – Administer and invigilate the tests

Testing is expected to be conducted under specified uniform test conditions for all students in the Item Trial sample.

The invigilation of the Item Trial must be conducted between Monday 29 July to Friday 16 August 2019, unless otherwise agreed with ACARA.

Throughout the test period, the Contractor is required to:

- ensure that invigilators administer each test in a consistent manner. This consistency of administration is vital to the integrity of the Item Trial. It is essential that all students are focused on the tests and are encouraged to participate fully
- ensure that security is maintained by both the Contractor and invigilators, according to the security plan submitted by the Contractor
- provide a communication plan for establishing and maintaining contact with schools selected in the Item Trial sample in accordance with the project timeline, factoring in school holidays as a period where schools are not expected to respond to communication
- maintain a communication log detailing all communication between the Contractor and schools, which must be delivered to ACARA in the form of periodic reports
- ensure that all invigilators observe the test administration, then complete a log of the test administration for each of the test sessions they attend
- monitor test completion on a daily basis during the test period.

2.4.8 Deliverable 8 – Provide weekly/daily reports showing how the sample test numbers are being met

Prior to the test window, the Contractor is required to submit weekly reports confirming the number of schools and the number of estimated students scheduled to sit each test/assessment event (for each domain within each class, year level, school, sector and state).

During the testing window, the Contractor is required to submit daily reports listing the number of students that completed each test each day against the number of expected students (for each domain within each class, year level, school, sector and state); any issues experienced by invigilators; and the expected number of students scheduled for the following day (for each domain within each class, year level, school, sector and state). ESA will provide data extracts from the platform on the completed assessment events to assist with these reports.

The Contractor is also required to adjust the allocation of tests to students as the Item Trial progresses (in collaboration with ACARA and ESA) to ensure that the sample requirements for tests/testlets are met.

2.4.9 Deliverable 9 – Provide weekly logs of invigilators’ test administration experiences

The Contractor is required to submit weekly logs of responses from all invigilators outlining their test administration experiences.

Test session reports should capture feedback from invigilators regarding their observations during each test session. Feedback may include topics such as:

- school set-up and preparation required by the invigilator
- logging on process
- reaction of students to the testing environment
- reception of schools to the trial tests
- comments that students make about test content
- timing issues, e.g. did students complete the tests with time to spare; was there sufficient time to complete the tests?
- test incidents (i.e. any incident which may affect the school’s performance e.g. IT / technical issues, disruptions, test being abandoned)
- test security.

The format and proposed content of the logs will be agreed between ACARA and the Contractor.

2.4.10 Deliverable 10 – Test administration help line

The Contractor will be required to maintain a toll-free help line, sufficiently staffed to handle demand by one or more people) knowledgeable in test administration procedures and the online platform to assist schools with the administering of the tests. The help line will be open from 9am AEDT to 5pm WST hours for a period of three weeks (or as agreed) prior to the testing, and during the Item Trial testing period i.e. from 24 June to 16 August 2019.

2.4.11 Deliverable 11 – Secure printing, packing and distribution of Year 3 Writing tests

ACARA is considering trialling the Year 3 Writing prompts on paper and online, so that Year 3 students sit one test on paper and one test online in the platform (instead of 2 online writing tests). For the paper component, the Contractor would be required to:

- securely print writing test materials based on ACARA’s allocated writing design and ensure that sufficient test materials are printed so that the minimum number of completed tests is met (i.e. print a buffer of approximately 20% more tests than the minimum number of required completed tests e.g. as a minimum of 1000 completed paper writing tests are required, 1200 test materials should be printed)
- securely pack all writing test materials in class and school sets in tamper-proof bags, clearly labelled with the school and class, as per the sample/task allocation provided by ACARA. The task number being administered to each class in each school must be easily identifiable by invigilators. Packing must allow for accurate counting of test materials without opening the package

- use a highly secure and trackable distribution system for all writing test materials to and from invigilators
- ensure that all writing test materials returned from invigilators to the Contractor are accounted for
- ensure that invigilators collect up any used scrap paper after the completion of the tests.

Print masters of the secure paper writing test materials will be provided to the Contractor by ACARA. The table below shows the minimum number of Year 3 writing test booklets and tasks that would require printing and the number of pages in each piece of test material:

Y3 Writing test material	Page numbers per document	Number of students to complete each task	Total minimum number test material
8 different test booklets	4	125	1000
8 different stimulus tasks/prompts (full-colour sheet)	1	125	1000

ACARA will need to match the data for each students' completed paper writing test with their online test. Contractors will need to consider how to achieve this eg overprinting a student's platform ID/login on their paper test booklet. Note that no identifiable student data is able to be held in the platform, which is why all students are allocated a student ID.

Note to Tenderers: ACARA is considering trialling the Year 3 Writing prompts on paper and online, so that Year 3 students sit one test on paper and one test online in the platform. ACARA requests that the Contractor provide a quote to print, package and distribute sufficient Year 3 writing test booklets and prompts to ensure that a minimum number of 1000 Year 3 students each complete one writing test on paper.

The final project scope will be confirmed with the successful tenderer during contract negotiations.

2.4.12 Deliverable 12 – Secure, central marking centre

The Contractor will be required to establish a secure, central marking centre including the provision of devices for marking, development of marking materials and the training of markers including:

- computer hardware (large screen, keyboard, mouse) and internet connection for each marker
- printers
- copiers
- chairs and tables that adhere to good ergonomic design to facilitate occupational health and safety
- technical support required for marking
- meal storage and heating facilities and some basic kitchen facilities (e.g. refrigerators, microwaves, plates, cups, forks)
- tea and coffee making facilities
- break out training rooms

The marking centre should be held at highly secure premises and should accommodate sufficient markers to complete the marking operation.

The location of the marking centre should be in one central location in a capital city with team leaders, markers and a minimum of one lead marker. Home based marking will not be considered.

2.4.13 Deliverable 13 – Development of writing marking training materials: selection of scripts and writing of commentaries

The Contractor is responsible for assisting with the selection of scripts to be used by ACARA for the training of markers and employing a suitably qualified and experienced expert marker to write commentaries (annotations) for the scripts to be used as training materials to train markers. Determination of scores for the training scripts will be made through common marking and discussion, by an expert group, which will include at least 2 Marking Quality Team members, ACARA's Writing Test Manager and the Contractor's Lead Marker or an expert marker (preferably Perth-based) as agreed to by ACARA. Commentaries will be needed for a set of 6-8 training scripts per task.

Score determination and writing of commentaries will be held at an agreed location – preferably in ACARA's or the Contractor's offices in Perth. There is an expectation that the trial marking contractor will meet travel costs, meal allowances and accommodation expenses for the Lead Marker (if they choose not to use a Perth-based expert marker) and for MQT members. ACARA will cover all costs for ACARA staff.

As noted in section 2.4.12 above, the marking centre may be situated in any major Australian capital city. Therefore, the Contractor may choose to separate the tasks and personnel associated with the development of marking materials from the marking centre, according to location.

The Contractor will also be responsible for selecting and seeding common scripts during the marking operation that will be used as part of the marker quality control process.

The Contractor is expected to consult and work closely with ACARA's Writing Test Manager during the development of the marker-training materials and the selection of the common scripts. This involvement is crucial to ensuring that the quality assurance processes required to monitor marker accuracy and consistency are as close as possible to the marking of NAPLAN test scripts.

2.4.14 Deliverable 14 – Appoint and train writing markers

The Contractor will be responsible for the employment of Lead Marker, team leaders and markers who will mark the tasks online, in the M&SS component of the platform, using the national marking rubrics.

The Lead Marker will be responsible for assisting ACARA's Writing Test Manager to train team leaders and markers and monitor the marking centre.

The Contractor will be required to source and secure a Lead Marker and sufficient team leaders and markers to meet the timelines.

Requirements for markers

The markers employed by the Contractor are expected to:

- have proven experience in the marking of NAPLAN writing scripts and in the use of the NAPLAN marking guides
- have demonstrated high levels of accuracy and consistency in main NAPLAN marking operations
- be sufficiently skilled in using computer devices in order to learn how to mark scripts on an online marking platform
- have a mobile phone.

Requirements for team leaders and Lead Marker

The team leaders and Lead Marker employed by the Contractor are expected to:

- have proven experience in the marking of NAPLAN writing scripts and in the use of the NAPLAN marking guides
- have experience as a team leader in a system-level large scale marking operation
- have proven strong communication skills with markers
- have demonstrated high levels of accuracy and consistency in main NAPLAN marking operations
- be sufficiently skilled in using computer devices in order to learn how to mark scripts on an online marking platform
- have a mobile phone to access the platform.

Marking will be preceded by a half-day of training facilitated by ACARA's Writing Test Manager, who will be assisted by the Contractor's Lead Marker. The training must be attended by all markers to refresh their knowledge of the marking rubrics and will utilise existing exemplars as well as test-specific scripts. Training in marking typed scripts will also be given. Training will also ensure that markers are fully aware of their responsibilities with regard to the security of test materials and the use of the system.

Markers will be asked to complete a short survey/feedback form about each writing task (e.g. suitability for year level, range of writing both quality and quantity, range of ideas etc.) at the end of the marking operation.

The Contractor will be responsible for all costs associated with the hiring and training of markers, for the period from the commencement of training to the completion of marking. ACARA will provide user guides and training in the platform for markers appointed by the Contractor and ACARA will also provide technical support in the platform (if the M&SS is used). The Contractor may be required to create marker profiles within the platform and assign the scripts (as determined by ACARA) to each marker (if the M&SS is used).

2.4.15 Deliverable 15 – Human marking of writing scripts

Eight writing tasks (prompts), some narrative and some persuasive, will be administered during the NAPLAN Online Item Trial August 2019. The design of the Item Trial is such that at least 1000 student responses (scripts) per task – a minimum of 8000 scripts in total – will need to be single blind marked. These scripts include a mix of narrative and persuasive genres.

		Expected number of scripts
		Year 3	Year 5	Year 7	Year 9	Total
Task	1	250	250	250	250	1000
	2	250	250	250	250	1000
	3	250	250	250	250	1000
	4	250	250	250	250	1000
	5	250	250	250	250	1000
	6	250	250	250	250	1000
	7	250	250	250	250	1000
	8	250	250	250	250	1000
Total		2000	2000	2000	2000	8000

	Scripts	X Marking	Total
Scripts	8000	1	8000
Check mark	Minimum 800	1	Minimum 800
Adjudication	as required	as required	as required
Total scripts			Minimum 8800

The Contractor is responsible for the highly secure marking of writing scripts.

The scripts must be marked in a secure marking centre by trained, expert NAPLAN markers in accordance with the marking rubrics and specifications provided by ACARA. The marking design will be determined in conjunction with ACARA's Writing Test Manager.

The Contractor is required to conduct:

- single blind marking of all scripts – markers will be required to provide one set of criteria scores for each script
- a minimum of 10% check marking of each marker on each day.

The Contractor's Lead Marker will follow procedures and protocols applied to NAPLAN marking to ensure that a high degree of accuracy and reliability is maintained. The Contractor must provide appropriate quality control statistics.

The Contractor will be responsible for the secure storage of any complete raw data sets and/or reports held outside of the platform; and must ensure that these are made available to ACARA on completion of the project.

A detailed description and timeline of the writing marking process is provided in Appendix A.

Note to Tenderers: ACARA is seeking a quote from the Contractor to provide and use their own secure, online marking system on which to conduct the marking operation, in the event that the Marking and Scoring system developed by ESA is not able to be used. The Contractor's marking system must be able to accept electronically-produced (typed) writing scripts and ideally be able to also accept hand-written scripts; be configured for implementing Deliverables 10-17 on all criteria of the NAPLAN writing marking guide; and for quality control via targeted backmarking, including frequently available reports (score review procedures). The Contractor's marking system must be able to accept (quality) control scripts, ensuring that they render in a way that they are indistinguishable from live scripts. The Contractor would also need to provide technical support (a helpdesk) for, and training in, their online marking system for the duration of the marking operation.

The final project scope will be confirmed with the successful tenderer during contract negotiations.

2.4.16 Deliverable 16 – Marking progress reports

Throughout the project, marking progress reports, including marking completion, marker quality and adjudication reports, will be available through the system (or by export from the system) and should be monitored by the contractor, in conjunction with ACARA. Marking progress should be monitored and progress reports exported and supplied to ACARA at least once every marking session.

2.4.17 Deliverable 17 – Provision of Writing data and images to ACARA

Should ACARA decide to use the contractor's marking system to mark writing scripts, the Contractor will be required to provide data files at the end of the marking operation for all sets of raw score marks for each student in a single row according to ACARA's specifications. A separate file should be provided for each Task and Year Group (e.g. Year 3 Task 1).

The detailed data matrix specifications will be provided to the successful contractor. The format of the data file is fixed width ASCII text file. Quality assurance processes must be in place to ensure the accuracy and consistency of these data. These data files are used in psychometric analysis of the items/tasks to determine their suitability or otherwise for inclusion on the final (2020) NAPLAN test forms.

The Contractor is required to nominate one person with experience in the production of data files to be able to be contacted for a period of four weeks after the data files have been provided to ACARA to resolve any issues that might arise during the subsequent analysis of the writing results. The person should be readily available during that period.

The Contractor is also required to provide ACARA with high resolution scanned copies of the Year 3 paper scripts in Jpeg and Pdf formats and the hard copies of the paper scripts.

Note to Tenderers: Should ACARA decide to proceed with using the Contractor's marking system for marking writing scripts, the Contractor would need to provide quality assured data capture and delivery of the writing data to ACARA in the agreed fixed width text file format as noted in Deliverable 17. High resolution scanned images of the paper writing scripts in Pdf and Jpeg formats must also be provided.

The final project scope will be confirmed with the successful tenderer during contract negotiations.

2.4.18 Deliverable 18 – Secure storage and disposal of materials

After the completion of the administration of the tests, the Contractor will be responsible for ensuring that the invigilators collect up any scrap paper used during the tests and securely destroy these e.g. by shredding.

The Contractor will be responsible for ensuring that any materials that can compromise the security of the test are securely provided to ACARA or destroyed. 'Secure' is specified in the section 2.6 Security Requirements.

Note to Tenderers: ACARA is considering trialling the Year 3 Writing prompts on paper and online, so that Year 3 students sit one test on paper and one test online in the platform. ACARA requests that the Contractor provide a quote to print, package and distribute sufficient Year 3 writing test booklets and prompts to ensure that a minimum number of 1000 Year 3 students each complete one writing test on paper.

ACARA is also seeking a quote from the Contractor to provide and use their own secure, online marking system on which to conduct the marking operation, in the event that the Marking and Scoring system developed by ESA is not able to be used, and/or in the event that the Year 3 writing scripts must be conducted in a paper-based form instead of online on the platform. The Contractor's marking system must be able to accept electronically-produced (typed) writing scripts and ideally be able to also accept hand-written scripts; be configured for implementing Deliverables 10-17 on all criteria of the NAPLAN writing marking guide; and for quality control via targeted backmarking, including frequently available reports (score review procedures). The Contractor's marking system must be able to accept (quality) control scripts, ensuring that they render in a way that they are indistinguishable from live scripts. The Contractor would also need to provide technical support (a helpdesk) for, and training in, their online marking system for the duration of the marking operation.

Should ACARA decide to proceed with using the Contractor's marking system for marking writing scripts, the Contractor would need to provide quality assured data capture and delivery of the writing data to ACARA in the agreed fixed width text file format as noted in Deliverable 17. High resolution scanned images of the paper writing scripts in Pdf and Jpeg formats must also be provided.

The final project scope will be confirmed with the successful tenderer during contract negotiations.

2.5 Security requirements

All aspects of test administration; invigilation; writing marking and training must be carried out under strict security. The Contractor is required to provide a detailed security plan for managing all stages of the project, informed by the requirements below:

- The Contractor must maintain a high level of security throughout this contract. The security plan must outline how security will be maintained during all stages of the process.
- All tests, scripts, administration instructions, marking and training materials, data files and associated materials, in both printed (if any) and electronic forms, must be secured at all times so that unauthorised personnel (as specified by ACARA) do not have access to them.
- The Contractor must have in place an approval process for employing qualified and suitable invigilators and markers.
- The Contractor must develop protocols for invigilators during the test administration period.
- Incident management procedures and response plans, detailing how system access, security and unscheduled downtime will be managed.
- The Contractor is required to account for any printed material or paperwork used during the Item Trial that could potentially compromise the security of the tests. All administration instructions and student working sheets must be collected by the invigilator before students are allowed to leave a test room. The Contractor must check that all materials are accounted for when returned by invigilators. All markers notes must be collected by the Contractor before markers are allowed to leave the marking centre. The Contractor must check that all materials are accounted for when returned by markers.
- The Contractor is required to securely destroy all paperwork and all electronic artefacts and data files generated outside the platform for the duration of the project when instructed by ACARA. The Contractor is required to provide written assurance and confirmation of secure destruction of aforementioned material.

- If sub-contractors are engaged by the Contractor, the prescribed security measures must apply to them also. It is the responsibility of the Contractor to ensure that this occurs. All personnel including sub-contractors must have no conflict of interest.

All personnel employed by the Contractor (or any sub-contractors) must sign confidentiality agreements in which they agree not to disclose information about the tests and the test questions, including the Writing genres. Invigilators may not disclose information about or discuss the genres of the Writing tests with any other party, including other invigilators, to any other party. Markers may not disclose information about or discuss the genres of the Writing tests with any other party outside the marking centre.

The invigilators must ensure that security of online tests is not breached during their implementation, that no recording devices of any type are used by students, teaching or support staff, and that only necessary teaching and support staff are present during any online testing in schools. The invigilators must maintain the security of all online test log-in information and all other information in relation to the online test delivery platform.

All electronic equipment including telecommunications apparatus, servers, disks, tape libraries etc. are to be kept in a secure location and access limited to authorised personnel. At a minimum the following requirements must be met:

- All locations where production of related materials occurs (including the locations for suppliers and subcontractors) are in a secure environment;
- All personnel including subcontractors must declare any potential, actual or perceived conflict of interest to ACARA and accept the outcome of any determination by ACARA to manage this conflict/s. All personnel including subcontractors must also sign confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements;
- All applications must have appropriate user authentication through passwords and access limitations; and
- All data to be transferred must have encryption (secure socket layer SSL) and be transferred via the Contractor's File Transfer Protocol (FTP) site.

In addition, the Contractor is required to notify ACARA immediately of any breaches of security. If a breach of security occurs, the Contractor must follow ACARA's instructions for dealing with the breach. The Contractor is required to keep ACARA fully briefed on progress and any issues that may arise, and to provide periodic progress reports at specified dates.

2.5 Materials to ACARA

At each completion phase of the deliverables outlined above, the Contractor must provide ACARA with a report and/or an agreed sample of each of the materials produced, as appropriate. Where materials are developed electronically, ACARA will receive a copy of the electronic file/s for each of the materials developed. The Contractor must also provide ACARA opportunities to review and provide feedback on the development of the materials prior to and during the development phase.

3. Required Contract Material (see clause 2.1.1.b)

The Contractor will be required to:

- Test administration handbook
- Writing marking and training materials
- Test session reports
- Student results data/reports (if relevant)

3.2. Secure deletion of data

The contractor is required to provide evidence that all data not contained within the platform have been securely erased from all media including but not limited to networks servers, computer hard drives in the Contractor's possession, as specified by ACARA. This will include information on Item Trial tests and marking and information on item/task performance including but not limited to any data used in preparation for the delivered files. The timeline for this activity will be negotiated with the Contractor at a later date.

Appendix A

ACARA Item Trial (August 2019) Writing Marking Schedule

Preparation of Item Trial writing marking materials

A set of materials is required for each topic to be marked – i.e. for the ACARA Item Trial (August 2019) 8 sets are to be developed. Both narrative and persuasive topics will be trialled. The Lead Marker and expert markers need to be highly experienced with both rubrics.

Please note that this schedule will be confirmed at the project initiation meeting.

Activity title	Work to be completed	Duration	Dates	Resources	Personnel
1. Script Selection for a set of potential training materials for EACH topic.	A range of potential training scripts selected from completed student scripts. (Approx. 10 hand-picked scripts per topic that will be pared down to a final set of 4-5 after agreed consensus marking). Each topic's scripts must cover the range of possible scores and must include high level examples that can exemplify top scores in a number, if not all categories. Scripts must be selected from high and low ICSEA schools across the year levels.	3 days – must commence asap after completion of sufficient scripts (one class per year level)	31/07/2019 to 02/08/2019	Assess scripts from students across all ability levels for EACH topic Platform, marking system, internet, devices and printer Location: At ACARA's Perth office	Experienced expert markers: Contractor's Lead Marker or local expert marker in consultation with ACARA

Notes are made on particular category features to inform the writing of script commentaries.			Location: At ACARA's Perth office	*Inclusion of a minimum of 2 MQT members in this process is considered crucial to ensuring that the marking consistency at trial is aligned to national marking operations. The data from trial can then be used with confidence to predict the performance of future test topics. At least 2 MQT members and ACARA staff will work in conjunction with the Contractor's Lead Marker or local expert marker. There is an expectation that the trial marking contractor will meet travel costs, meal allowances and accommodation expenses for the Lead Marker (if they choose not to use a Perth-based expert marker) and MQT members. ACARA will cover all costs for ACARA staff.
3. Production of training script commentaries	Using the consensus scores and notes taken in step 2, each script will have a commentary written. Each commentary notes the agreed category score for each of the 10 marking criteria as well as a category description of the features exemplified in the script for each criterion.	4 days	08/08/2019 to 13/08/2019	Scripts and notes from step 2 Platform, marking system, internet, devices and printer Location: Preferable at ACARA's Perth office (alternatively at contractor's premises if regular secure communications can be established)	Expert markers: Contractor's Lead Marker or local expert marker in consultation with ACARA (needs to be the same person who worked in activity 1 and 2 above)
