Timeline
F–10 Australian Curriculum Review

Australian CURRICULUM Review

Content review

Website upgrade

2020

June
- Education Council agrees to Terms of Reference (TOR)
- TOR and new Shape of the Australian Curriculum papers available at acara.edu.au/curriculum

From July
- Teacher and curriculum specialist reference groups established
- Review in progress across all learning areas

December
- Progress report to Education Council
  - Progress on review of all learning areas provided to Education Council

User experience research and design development for new Australian Curriculum website

Finalise design requirements

Build new website and undertake user testing

2021

End January – April
- Review and revision process continuing across all learning areas in consultation with reference groups

End April – July
- 10-week public comment window
  - Feedback sought on proposed content changes to F–10 Australian Curriculum in English, Mathematics, Science, Technologies, Humanities and Social Sciences, The Arts, Health and Physical Education, and Languages (Chinese, Japanese, Italian, French)

By September
- Feedback considered and final content changes complete

October
- Recommended revisions to F–10 Australian Curriculum ready for endorsement by Education Council

October – December
- Refresh existing work samples and other resources to align with revised curriculum
- Prepare teacher and parent communication materials

Complete website build using user insights and feedback and seek further user testing

Finalise user testing

Populate new website with revised approved Australian Curriculum content

2022

Start

New Australian Curriculum website goes live
- Ongoing development of additional work samples and support resources
- Continue review of the 12 other Languages (to be finalised by end of 2023)