

---

MEDIA RELEASE

5 July 2023

Consultation opens for the next 4 Australian Curriculum: Languages being reviewed

ACARA has released proposed revisions to the next 4 Australian Curriculum: Languages (Chinese: Background and First Language Learners, Framework for Classical Languages, Classical Greek and Latin) for public comment.

Public feedback is sought via the consultation website

<http://www.australiancurriculum.edu.au/consultation/languages/> from 4 July to 12

September 2023.

The Review of the Australian Curriculum commenced in 2020–2021 and while the updated Australian Curriculum, Version 9.0 that resulted was released on a new website in May 2022, the Review’s terms of reference provided for the Languages curricula to be reviewed and endorsed in phases.

“We’re pleased to release this latest round of draft revisions to the Languages curricula for comment as part of the review of the Australian Curriculum,” said ACARA CEO David de Carvalho.

“The Languages comprise a substantial and important part of the Australian Curriculum. We encourage the community to give their feedback through a survey on our consultation website to ensure the updated Australian Curriculum: Languages is equipping Australian students with the knowledge and skills they need for the future.”

Media contact: 0414 063 872, media.contact@acara.edu.au